Cottman v. Millville, et. al.

Defendants do not object to the motion documents being filed on the public docket. The brief filed in support of Plaintiffs' October 14, 2021, Motion to Compel does not need to be filed under seal or with redactions; however, the exhibits filed in support of the motion, while they do not need to be filed under seal, they should be filed in their current redacted form.

Thank you for your time and attention to this matter.
